ENFORCE THE LAW.

We believe there is an ordinance of the city providing for the punishment of those who leave horses attached to vehicles unhitched on the streets. It certainly needs enforcement. On Saturday last there was buggy and a two-horse wagon, both left unhitched, and a runaway resulted in a broken wheel in one case and several vehicles badly wrecked in the other.

Stop this bad practice.

SOLDIERS RETURN FROM BARBOURVILLE.

Battery A, Second Regiment Kentucky National Guards, of this city, under command of Capt. C. W. Longmire, returned Tuesday from Barbourville, bringing the colored woman, Annie Henson, who was sentenced to the Penitentiary for fifteen years, for conspiring to murder a white woman.
